PATIENT RIGHTS AND HIPAA AUTHORIZATIONS

Page (2of2)

The following specifies your rights about this authorization under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996, as amended from time to time (HIPAA).

-Tell your mental health professional if you don't understand this authorization. and they will explain it to you.-You have the right to revoke or cancel this authorization at any time, except: (a) to the extent information has already been shared based on this authorization; or (b) this authorization was obtained as a condition of obtaining insurance coverage. To revoke or cancel this authorization, you must submit your request in writing to your mental health professional and your insurance company, if applicable.

-You may refuse to sign this authorization. Your refusal to sign will not affect your ability to obtain treatment, make payment, or affect your eligibility for benefits. If you refuse to sign this authorization, and you are in a research-related treatment program. or have authorized your provider to disclose information about you to a third party. your provider has the right to decide not to treat you or accept you as a client in their practice.

-Once the information about you leaves this office according to the terms of this authorization, this office has no control over how it will be used by the recipient. You need to be aware that at that point your information may no longer be protected by HIPAA.

If this office initiated this authorization, you must receive a copy of the signed authorization.

Special Instructions for completing this authorization for the use and disclosure of Psychotherapy Notes. HIPAA provides special protections to certain medical records known as Psychotherapy Notes." All Psychotherapy Notes recorded on any medium (i.e., paper, electronic) by a mental health professional (such as a psychologist or psychiatrist) must be kept by the author and filed separate from the rest of the client's medical records to maintain a higher standard of protection. "Psychotherapy Notes" are defined under HIPAA as notes recorded by a health care provider who is a mental health professional documenting or analyzing the contents of conversation during a private counseling session or a group, joint, or family counseling session and that are separate from the rest of the individual's medical records. Excluded from the "Psychotherapy Notes" definition are the following: (a) medication prescription and monitoring. (b) counseling session start and stop times, (c) the modalities and frequencies of treatment furnished. (d) the results of clinical tests, and (e) any summary of: diagnosis, functional status, the treatment plan, symptoms, prognosis, and progress to date.

In order for a medical provider to release Psychotherapy Notes to a third party the client who is the subject of the Psychotherapy Notes must sign this authorization to specifically allow for the release of Psychotherapy Notes. Such authorization must be separate from an authorization to release other medical records.

Missed Appointment Policy

In an effort to provide all of our clients with quality care in a timely manner Empower You! Counseling, LLC., has updated it's missed appointment policy. This new policy is effective immediately.

Failure to show for a scheduled appointment or notify our office / therapist of cancellation within 12 hours of your scheduled appointment time will result in a $75 missed appointment fee. Moving forward we will be billing this fee directly to a credit card we will keep on file. We will send you a receipt (via, UPS, email, or text) notifying you of the missed appointment charge. If you decline to provide Empower You! Counseling, LLC., with a valid credit card and you incur a $75 missed appointment charge, we will notify you (via, USPS, email or text) with a missed appointment invoice and a 20% surcharge added for a total amount of $90.

Please note that the missed appointment fee is charged at your therapists' discretion.

Please fill out attached Credit Card Authorization Form

Our missed appointment policy enables us to better utilize available appointment time for all of our clients who are in need of care.

Thank you for your consideration of this policy. We are honored that you have chosen Empower You! Counseling, LLC., as your provider!

To be respectful of other patients, please be courteous and call our office / or your therapist if you are unable to make your scheduled appointment. This will allow us to reallocate your appointment time to another client in need of care. Please provide us with a minimum of 12 hours notice if you need to cancel your appointment. To cancel or reschedule your appointment please call our office (248-289-1894) or your therapist. Please understand that occasionally we cannot answer the phone and you will be connected to our voicemail. If you are calling to cancel or reschedule your appointment please leave your full name and the time of your appointment. Please note, if you call our office and are connected to voicemail and you choose not to leave a message and/or fail to contact your therapist, this will also result in a missed appointment fee.

Any amount owed by a client at the end of the month will be sent an invoice for the amount due. Should payment or payment arrangements not be made within 60 days of appointment date, any unpaid balance will be sent to a collection agency for non-payment. At this time you understand and agree that the money owed to Empower You! Counseling, LLC., will be collected by a collection agency plus an additional 45% collection fee.

- I accept this policy and will complete the credit card authorization form.
